THE RAMBLER

We were young when we entered these doors. We have found many precious things; friendship, knowledge, and happiness. We have worked, we have learned, we have loved and lived. We were challenged by our teachers, parents, and community; and we shall continue to be challenged as we pass through these doors to begin a new life. Although we will be separated, our memories of A. H. S. will linger on forever.

CLASS HISTORY

We, the graduating class of 1960, sixteen strong, were initiated into our violent struggle to attain educational stature at the Arlington Educational Institute September 3, 1948, under the guidance of Mrs. Frances Pitts, whose knowledge and wisdom created a firm foundation for our future challenge in this world with man and beast.

Our next five years were guided by many able and wise instructors, those being Mrs. Vera Pitts, Mrs. Josephine Alexander, Mrs. Louise Pike, and Mrs. Martha Kesler. During this course of years many members were added and subtracted. Our greatest loss in those years was the death of our beloved David Lowe.

The fall of 1954 saw our class still struggling up the ladder of success. This was our entrance into Junior High School. Our sponsors that so patiently guided us were Mrs. Dorothy Hollinger and Mrs. Marian White.

We took our big step in the fall of 1956 when we entered the first of our last four years of school. Our vivid experiences during that year were numerous. The first and most memorable was the initiation by the Seniors of that year. Another of our experiences was our introduction into the courses of algebra and biology. Our officers were: President, Jeanie Hull, Vice President, Carole Offutt; Secretary, Bill Beckner, and Treasurer, Jerome Wooldridge. During this year two new members joined our class. They were Patty Van Scyoc and Leroy Myers.

Our Sophomore year brought about many changes. Our new sponsor was Mr. Don Clements. Charles Moore was a visitor in our class for that year. Everyone enjoyed working for the Spring Dance. One of the biggest events of the year was receiving our class rings. Our officers were: President, Jere Seitz; Vice President, Bill Beckner; Secretary, Carole Offutt, and Treasurer, Jerome Wooldridge.

As we entered our Junior year, we all experienced numerous events that helped us build our treasury. We started by selling candy at school and at basketball games. October found us preparing for our play "Stop the Wedding" under the direction of Mrs. Neysa Wilt. She and her husband continued as our sponsors for the duration of our high school career. Our officers were: President, Richard James; Vice President, Max Maple; Secretary, Johnny Twigg, and Treasurer, Bill Beckner. That following summer we lost three members, Patty Van Scyoc, Marjorie Hill, and Harlan Burris.

August 29, 1959, the members of the class of 1960, still sixteen strong, started on the last lap of our journey up the ladder of success. We presented our play "The Perfect Idiot" in October. Richard James was elected President; Bill Beckner, Vice President; Jeanie Hull, Secretary; and Janet Veatch, Treasurer. As a climax to our high school career, we dedicated our yearbook, "The Rambler" and took the trip that everyone had worked so hard to attain.

Graduation came at last, and we bade farewell to the dear Halls of Arlington High School where we had lived and learned to love. In our future years we will always remember those twelve years spent at Arlington and the laughter and tears that we shared during those wonderful experiences which will never again exist.
